

HSBC Ambassador - Alex Goode

Will be appearing Friday and Saturday at the
HSBC Rugby Festival Dubai 2017

Goode made his test debut for England against South Africa, coming off the bench on 16 June 2012. Goode was part of the squad selected for the 2012 Autumn internationals, starting all four of the games at full back. He played well enough to earn himself QBE Man of the Match in England's 54–12 win over Fiji, being impressive in all of the games, including England's win over New Zealand. Goode's good form continued in 2013 Six Nations Championship, playing all five games including the Grand Slam decider at Cardiff's Millennium Stadium.
